To Whom It May Concern:

Marie Newman is running for Congress in the 3rd Congressional District of Illinois. Earlier this month, I received a postcard in the mail promoting her candidacy. The postcard did not have a return address and did not identify the person or organization that sent the card.

I am not certain, but I believe this is a violation of federal election law. If in fact it is a violation of federal election law, I ask that you conduct a full and fair investigation.

I made the candidate aware of my concerns on February 16, 2018 via US Mail.

Copies of pertinent documents are enclosed.

Thank you.

Dear Ms. Newman:

I recently received a postcard from northern Virginia in the mail. A copy is enclosed.

The writer of the postcard appears to support your candidacy, but there is neither a return address nor a name of the organization that sent the card. Please tell me who sent the postcard.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

John Mulvey
